MINISTER'S NOTES

A Winsome Church

Wise churches are winsome churches (Proverbs 11:30). Following are some of the wise ways churches win people for Jesus.

They Are Multi-Generational.

Youth are not the church of tomorrow; they're part of the church today. Wise churches do what they can to reach kids now. They don't just talk about it; they do it. They invest in young people.

But they also respect older people. Those who have paid the price to help get us where we are now need to know they are treasured. Wise churches value all generations.

They Stay Out of Ruts.

Doing something simply because that's the way it's always been done is the fast track to extinction. Wise churches have the ability to change in the right way at the right time for the right reasons. Obviously, our message never changes; but our methods can and must change if we want to connect to the culture.

They Stay off of Bandwagons.

Churches can learn from others who are succeeding, but one of the benefits of autonomy is that it gives us the freedom to be creative and imaginative. We don't have copy others. We can be original, innovative, fresh, and uniquely ourselves.

They Are Grace-Oriented.

Wise churches make room at the table for sinners. They don't demand perfection. They practice forgiveness — because the ground at the foot of the cross is level.

They Reach as Many People as Possible.

Wise churches don't show favoritism. They accept others as Christ accepted them.

They Release People into Ministry.

Wise churches empower people. They entrust people with responsibility — because every member of the body must be involved in the work of ministry in order to have a fully functioning church.

They Insist That People Dream.

Life beats the hope out of people. So, wise churches spend a lot of energy building up people. They encourage members to dream and fulfill the Great Commission in a variety of God-honoring ways.
